

Adrian Shephard is a British misconstruction artist now based in Berlin, founder of Testcard, a confrontational performance group formed in 1993. Research range from Ouija board transmissions to brain frequency, mind/body experiments and industrial music. with a catalogue of 15 albums released at present. Adrian was co-founder of Brighton cinematheque an independent south coast cinema for 7 years. He was a butoh dancer having studied with Masaki Iwana and performed in Brighton, France and Germany. Adrian co-runs Radio-On-Berlin a 'lo-fi' 24 hour broadcast station for 'lo-fi' people with Rinus Van Alebeek.

" Peep Show "

Adrian Shephard with Dean & Eve.

Spontaneously naive and playful this film documents an actual event that occurred in Paris in 1997 in the notorious red light district of Pigalle. It explores both self and public censorship and questions the limits of bodily freedom in three consecutive locations - a private truck, the streets of Paris and the erotic museum in Pigalle.

Previously shown :

Shockingfilm compilation DVD - Berlin 2015

'Getting to know you' film exhibition at Gallery 75 in London 2012.

