

Mikhail Deyev is an artist from St. Petersburg, Russia. Born in 1982. He is educated as a wood works restorer. Later in his artistic career he got into fine art and painting. He's been learning directly from artists and taking part in many projects and numbers of workshops around the art world of St. Petersburg. On the same level he is interested in a visual art development as much as fashion, modern music industry and all sorts of subcultural movements. At the moment Mikhail is working on design and development of his own brand of clothing called M33.

'S'

As a part of a current exhibition Mikhail is here to introduce his new project called "S". This is a close research on human inner borders, society opinion, morality and self-actualisation from the point of view of a being under the name of "S", that found and developed itself in a stream of modern information and identified itself as a personality.
